AT YOUR SERVICE

RESIDENCE

There is a home-like atmosphere for thirty-five young women under thirty-five years of age, with reasonable rates for room and board. Two attractive rooms are available for transient guests. A Residence Supervisor is House Mother and Counsellor, and house representatives are elected. Regular meetings and informal gatherings are held which add to the friendliness and understanding within the house.

ROOMS REGISTRY

Available rooms in the community are listed for the convenience of those requiring accommodation.

ROOMS SERVICE

The drawing room, library, and recreation rooms are available when free for group social gatherings, wedding receptions, showers and social evenings.

TRAVELLERS' AID

Provides a connection with the official Travellers' Aid throughout Canada, the U.S.A., and the continent.

COUNSELLING

Many persons have used the Y.W.C.A. as a directive for varied problems at hand.

FOOD SERVICE

Now known as "Oshawa's Finest Home of Good Food" includes a public cafeteria, meals for residents, and catering for wedding receptions, dinner parties, etc. During the summer the Terrace is available for meals out-of-doors.

Crafts—

The purpose of the craft work shop is to give the citizens of Oshawa and district a pleasant place wherein handicrafts of various types may be pursued. As far as may be arranged, the members come at their own convenience, unless for a specific item such as weaving, where time has to be specified due to equipment.

The area of the shop is spacious, thus allowing for adequate accommodation. Individual instruction is given to all in the following: leathercraft, gloves, moccasins, felt work, weaving, and allied crafts. There are eight floor looms from which come articles such as placé mats, tartan scarves, aprons, table cloths, bed spreads, upholstery, drapes and varied materials.

Craft Shop Hours—

Mornings—Monday and Friday 9.30-11.30 a.m.
Afternoons—Monday to Friday 2.00-5.00 p.m.
Evenings—Tues. and Thursday 7.00-10.00 p.m.
Wednesday evenings—Weaving only.
